GIORNATE DI CONIGLICOLTURA ASIC 2009

Fiera di Forlì, April 2-3, 2009

Dear Colleagues,

It is a pleasure to invite you to the third edition of the “Giornate di Coniglicoltura ASIC” which will be held in Forlì on April 2-3, 2009.

The meeting will be organized during the “International Fair specialized in Poultry and Rabbit”, in collaboration with “Avitalia” and “Ente Fiera di Forlì”.

The meeting will take place on two days and will include a round table and invited lectures addressed to both productive and scientific world as well as scientific sessions with communications and poster presentation. The round table will be focused on “Biosecurity in Rabbit Farming”. Moreover there will be two invited lectures focused on key-topics for the rabbit sector: the role of digestible fibre on gut health (Prof. Javier García, University of Madrid, Spain) and the relationship between housing systems and animal welfare (Prof. Zsolt Szendrő, University of Kaposvár, Hungary).

Finally, scientific communications and posters will be presented in the areas of Reproduction and Genetics, Nutrition and Physiology, Pathology, Welfare and Management, Meat Quality.

The authors who intend to present oral communications or posters have to send the title submission form to the scientific secretary before December 19, 2008. The papers must be sent before February 13, 2009. The guidelines for authors, the program and the registration form are available on line (<http://www.coniglionline.com/asic.html>).
